Insight — Regional Performance Strategy

January profit strength was driven by high Technology demand, especially from Consumer and Home Office segments.

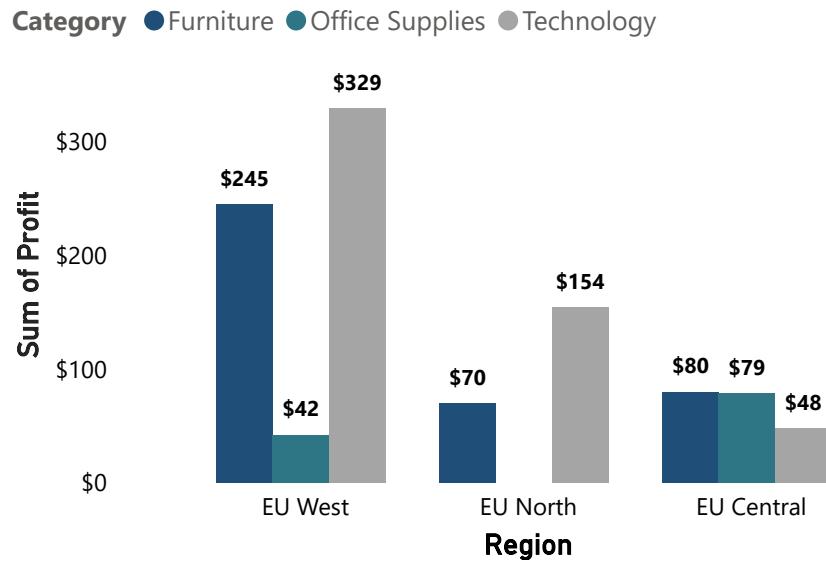

February saw a major drop in Technology profit due to lower Consumer engagement, while Corporate remained stable but small.

Recommendation:

Focus on targeted Technology promotion for Consumer + Home Office in February and beyond to recover profitability while maintaining Corporate engagement efficiently.

Regional Profit Heatmap - Segment * Category

Segment	EU Central	EU North	EU West	Total
Consumer	$120	$44	$403	$567
Corporate	$39	$110	$141	$290
Home Office	$48	$70	$72	$190
Total	$207	$224	$616	$1,047

Regional Profit Strategy — Europe

- EU West drives the highest profit — led by Consumer Technology
 - Prioritize premium pricing, product availability, and targeted promotions
- Corporate performance is strongest in EU North
 - Expand strategic B2B partnerships and large-volume deals
- EU Central remains weaker across categories
 - Improve category mix and launch focused marketing campaigns
- Home Office segment is weak in every region
 - Investigate needs and test bundle discounts + value-focused offerings

Bottom Line:

Focus high-growth investments in EU West + EU North while executing turnaround strategy in EU Central and the Home Office segment.

EU West profit Breakdown by Segment & Category

EU West - Profit Share by Category

Regional Opportunity Focus — EU West

- EU West is the strongest region — driven by high Consumer Technology margin
- Furniture also contributes meaningfully from Consumer + Corporate buyers
- Office Supplies is consistently weak — low margin, small engagement

Recommendation

Prioritize Consumer Technology growth in EU West through targeted offers + supply readiness. Optimize product mix for Furniture and reduce effort on Office Supplies unless bundled for upsell.
